Answer two questions.

Each question must be answered by a full essay setting out your arguments and providing support for your views wherever possible. Marks will be awarded for interesting and considered ideas.

Spend about 45 minutes on each question.
Answer two questions.

Each question must be answered by a full essay setting out your arguments and providing support for your views wherever possible. Marks will be awarded for interesting and considered ideas.

Spend about 45 minutes on each question.

1. Why do films need music?

2. “Certainly, up to now whatever I have accepted as fully true I have learned either from or by means of the senses.” Is our understanding of the world is based entirely on sense perception?

3. Happiness.

4. What makes a nation?

5. Have books lost their significance in the 21st century?

6. Is it time for the UK to adopt the Euro?

7. Can science tell us everything we need to know about the world?

8. “Footballers are paid too much.” Do you agree with this statement?

9. “It is impossible to conceive anything at all in the world, or even out of it, which can be taken as good without qualification, except a good will.” Discuss.

10. Should there be time limits on academic exams?

[End of Paper]